

Information on Internet Safety:

<http://www.wiredsafety.org/>

WiredSafety.org was started in 1995 and is the largest and oldest online safety resource in the world. The website provides information about all aspects of online safety, privacy, responsible use, and security.

<http://www.netsmartz.org/index.aspx> provides real life stories about cyberbullying.

NetSmartz provides on- and offline learning activities for parents to facilitate discussions with their children and teens about Internet safety.

<http://www.ncpc.org/topics/internet-safety>

The National Crime Prevention Council provides tip sheets for parents on internet safety and social networking sites. Public Service Announcements that can be downloaded from this site to share with teenagers address a wide range of internet safety issues.

<http://www.ciconline.org/digitaethics>

Cable in the Classroom has developed a variety of resources about evaluating media messages, practicing digital ethics, and staying safe in the digital world.

<http://www.onguardonline.gov/topics/p2p-security.aspx>

OnGuardOnline.gov provides information and practical tips from the federal government and the technology industry on Internet fraud, social networking sites, and peer-to-peer file sharing software.

https://secure.missingkids.com/missingkids/servlet/CybertipServlet?LanguageCountry=en_US

The National Center for Missing and Exploited Children –profit organization that helps prevent all types of illegal online behavior, including sexual exploitation of children.

Information on Cyberbullying:

<http://www.makeadifferenceforkids.org/cyberbullying.html>

Make a Difference For Kids is a non-profit organization that provides statistics on cyberbullying and shares real life stories of children that committed suicide after being cyberbullied.

<http://www.cyberbullying.us/resources.php>

The Cyberbullying Research Center provides cyberbullying research, stories, fact sheets, tips and strategies, news headlines, and a number of other helpful resources.

<http://www.stopcyberbullying.org/>

WiredKids, Inc. created this website for children seven to seventeen years old to assess their online behavior, to learn about the effects of cyberbullying, and to provide strategies that can be used to stop cyberbullying.

Hinduja, S. and Patchin, J. (September 2009). Cyberbullying: Fast Facts and School Strategies. Center for Social and Emotional Education Newsletter, 3(3), 4-5.

<http://www.schoolclimate.org/about/documents/newsletter-v3i3.pdf#page=4>